Consignee.....

We hereby request your company to issue "Seaway Bill" for the above mentioned shipment.

In consideration of your complying with our above request, we hereby agree as follows :

- 1) the seaway bill is not a document of title and there is no need for the consignee to present any transport document at the port of discharge, as long as he can identify himself as the party named as consignee in the seaway bill.
- 2) the carrier only responsibility in this respect is to exercise due diligence when confirming the identity of the person claiming to be the consignee.
- 3) to indemnify you, your servants and agents and to hold all of you harmless in respect of any responsibility and liability which you may sustain by reason of delivering the goods to the consignee named connected to our request for the above seaway bill issuance.

Yours faithfully,
